DEFENDANTS' STATUS REPORT REGARDING
ICE DETAINERS AND NOTIFICATION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

Pursuant to the Court's Judgment of November 28, 2016 (Dkt. No. 239), Defendants Janet Napolitano, John Morton, David C. Palmatier, and Ricardo Wong, acting in their official capacities ("Defendants"), hereby submit this Status Report regarding U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") detainers and ICE's notification to law enforcement agencies ("LEA").

On November 28, 2016, this Court issued its Judgment in this matter, in which it declared null and void immigration detainers already issued against Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff class. Judgment at ¶ 1, ECF No. 239. The Court initially stayed the judgment for 60 days. ECF No. 237. On December 27, 2016, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Alter or Amend the Judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e), ECF No. 241, which the district court denied on February 14, 2017, ECF No. 254. While awaiting ruling on Plaintiffs' Rule 59(e) motion, Defendants filed a motion to extend the stay of judgment until 60 days after the district court issued an order on the Rule 59(e) motion. ECF 248. The district court granted Defendants' motion, thereby staying the judgment until the date of the appeal deadline, April 17, 2017. ECF No. 251. Neither side has appealed the judgment.

In its judgment, the Court ordered Defendants to “promptly provide notice to every law enforcement agency and correctional institution that may house a member of the Plaintiff class, informing the agency or institution of the judgment.” Judgment at ¶ 2, ECF 239. The Court required Defendants to provide the Court with the status of their compliance with paragraph 2. Id. at ¶ 3. Finally, the Court permanently enjoined Defendants from issuing from the Chicago Field Office immigration detainers unless ICE meets certain requirements. Id. at ¶ 4.

In compliance with the Court's judgment, Defendants provide the attached declaration of ICE Enforcement and Removal Operations (ERO) Field Operations Acting Assistant Director Norman L. Parrish. See Attachment A, Declaration of Norman L. Parrish.

Date: April 17, 2017
